Can't Make It Wednesday, Miami Trace Board Says

Tuition Student Talks Off

Members of the Miami Trace Local School District Board of Education will not meet with Washington C. H. board members Wednesday night to discuss the tuition student question.

Plans for the conference, announced Thursday night after a large delegation of parents had met with the Miami Trace board to protest assignment of tuition children to Jeffersonville instead of Washington C. H. this fall, were cancelled Saturday afternoon when Taylor Groff, president of the Miami Trace board, notified Robert Terhune, city board president, that two Miami Trace members would be unable to attend a session set up for Wednesday night at Washington High School.

Groff indicated that the two members would be out of town on the night planned for the meeting and asked cancellation of the Wednesday night session. All five members of the Miami Trace board had said Thursday night that they felt Wednesday would be a satisfactory date for the get-together with the city board.

GROFF TOLD a representative of the Record-Herald by telephone Monday morning that the Miami

Trace board will meet tonight and a discussion of a new date for a conference with the city board will be on the agenda.

Groff reaffirmed the stand he took at the board's meeting last week when he told the parents' delegation, most of them members of the Rural Parents Assn., that his board made its decision on the tuition pupil issue in the spring and that he believes little can be done to change that decision now.

Members of the parents' delegation had argued that Washington High School—which had indicated in March that the "doors are closed—but not locked" to tuition students—would accept at least a part of the tuition students this fall. They expressed a strong contention that the Miami Trace board had not made a bona fide effort to open the doors to those students who wish to attend the city school next term.

AT THAT TIME the Miami Trace members were polled and each board member agreed to a meeting with the city board Wednesday to see what could be done in the matter.

Groff said Monday that the board's discussion tonight will include a review of those issues which can be talked over with the city board and the matter of a date for a meeting with the city board.

But he repeated that he felt no change in present plans could be effected.

Hodge Says He Needed Money For Expenses

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Orville Hodge took the witness stand Monday in Sangamon County Circuit Court and gave his version of the 1½ million dollar state check cashing swindle.

State's Atty. George P. Courton, seeking a stiff state sentence against the former state auditor, called upon Hodge to tell why he diverted huge amounts of state money. Hodge pleaded guilty, ioned for two hours before court recessed until 1:30 p. m.

Courton said he had four or five more witnesses to call this afternoon in advance of Hodge's sentencing.

"I took the money because I wanted to make investments, and I needed it for political purposes," Hodge testified, "and my expenses were heavy."

He said he believes that he began to use state funds in April, 1954.

Hodge, who pleaded guilty to state charges of embezzlement, forgery and confidence game a week ago, has spent most of the time since then in a hospital. Doctors said he was suffering from a nervous disorder.

Wednesday, he was taken from the hospital to Chicago and sentenced by U. S. Dist. Judge John P. Barnes to 10 years imprisonment for misapplying $872,000 in federally-insured bank funds.

Another 10 years' sentence was held open to suspension following completion of arrangements for restitution to the state by Hodge.

Crash Kills Five In Ohio Family

CAMDEN, S. C. (AP)—An auto crashed into a bridge Sunday, killing all five members of a North Olmstead, Ohio, family.

Officers identified the victims as Robert Gray, his wife and their three children, Douglas, 13, Carry, 8, and Sue, 6.

Authorities said Mrs. Gray apparently fell asleep at the wheel. The victims died in flames when the car caught fire after the crash 12 miles north of here on U. S. 521.

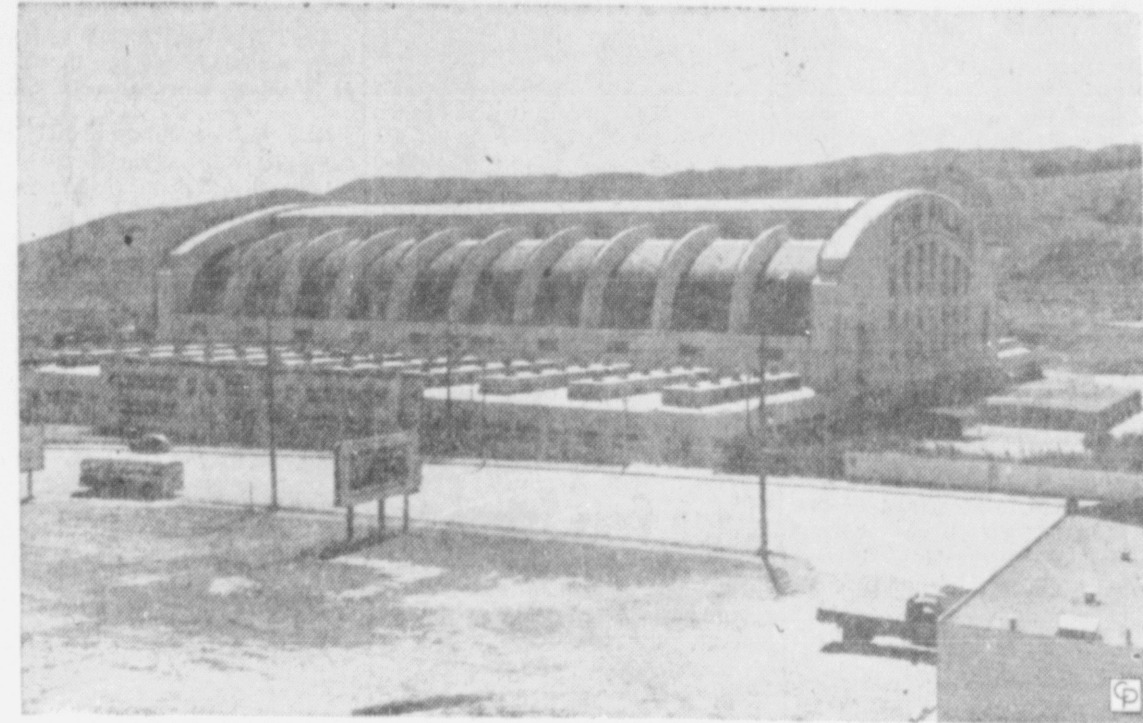

The family was en route to St. Petersburg, Fla., to visit Mrs. Gray's mother.

Riesel Sees Link In New Slaying

Blinded Columnist Notes Trucker Death

NEW YORK (AP)—Labor columnist Victor Riesel says the slaying of a truck driver Saturday is another link in a chain of underworld murders that have followed his blinding by acid.

The murders are "indicative of a terrific gang war which is just beginning in New York and will soon spread across the nation," Riesel said in a brief television appearance Sunday night.

Riesel, blinded by an acid-flinging hoodlum April 5, referred to the killing Saturday of Fred Mischner, 26. The truck driver was found with four bullets in his body in a hallway of a lower East Side tenement.

Police said, however, that there is "no definite association at this time" between Mischner's death and the slaying of Abraham Telvi, 22, last month.

The FBI has said Telvi was the man who tossed the acid at Riesel for a $1,000 fee.

TWO EX-CONVICTS were found dead in a parked automobile the same day Telvi's body was discovered. The two were wrapped in canvas and trussed with rope.

The FBI said the two knew "too much" about Telvi. They theorized (Please Turn to Page Ten)

Negotiations in Telephone Dispute To Be Resumed

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—Negotiations seeking to end a strike of 600 employees of the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. were to resume here today.

A spokesman said Edward Phillips of Columbus, federal mediator, would hold separate sessions with representatives of the company and the Communications Workers of America.

If there is progress, he then will hold a joint meeting with the two groups.

The strike, affecting exchanges in parts of 24 southern and eastern Ohio counties, started more than a month ago and has been marked by violence. Union officials have denied responsibility for the violence.

Several exchanges have been closed but one at Sciotoville, closed last Thursday, was reopened Saturday and began serving 2,400 patrons.

Picketing Is Brief At Bell Building

CLEVELAND (AP)—For a brief period today pickets appeared at the main building of Ohio Bell Telephone Co., while negotiators in New York were attempting to reach an agreement with Western Electric Co.

Less than two hours later Christy P. Nicholas, area representative of the Communications Workers Union, said he received word from the union's headquarters to withdraw the picket line because progress was being made in the negotiations.

There was no effect on the operations of Ohio Bell.

Western Electric installers, working mainly in Ohio Bell buildings, number about 300 in this area.

Republicans Seek Support of Labor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republican platform writers today pitched for the labor vote this fall by pointing to record employment and saying that "the American wage earner... can buy more than ever before."

Framing a tentative plank expected to be approved by the GOP national convention Tuesday they declared:

"The Eisenhower administration has brought to our people the highest employment, the highest wages and the highest standard of living ever enjoyed by any nation."

They also charged that a Democratic-controlled Congress blocked "needed changes" in the Taft-Hartley Labor-Management Act, and various administration-sponsored proposals in the health-welfare field.

Meanwhile, the 105-member drafting committee, after four hours of debate, approved early today a civil rights plank its chairman said would help the GOP in both the North and the South.

SOUTHERN MEMBERS intimated they were not so sure of Sen. Prescott Bush's optimism. But there was no indication the Dixie delegates would take the issue to the floor of the national convention opening today.

The wording of the plank was not made public, but it was understood to say the party "accepts" the Supreme Court decision barring racial segregation in the public schools as the law of the land.

It approves the civil rights recommendations of President Eisenhower, specifically mentioning proposals for a civil rights commission and to give the De-

At 86, Baruch's Advice Is 'Work'

NEW YORK (AP)—Bernard M. Baruch's advice to his fellow men on his 86th birthday: "To be a success in life requires one thing—work."

The financier and adviser to presidents was interviewed after a birthday luncheon at his apartment Sunday.

There were many congratulatory messages, a number of them from heads of state. Among them were messages from President Eisenhower and Sir Winston Churchill, former British prime minister.

Stassen had pinned his drive to replace Nixon on a hope that Eisenhower would let it be known before the convention's balloting session Wednesday that some others would be equally suitable as a vice presidential nominee.

Stevenson Plans Whistlestop Drive

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson gave enthusiastic approval today to an airplane and "whistlestop" train campaign embracing virtually every key state in the country.

He booked time Sept. 13 for a 30-minute, nationwide television address in a drive that will continue without letup until the eve of the election.

And it will cover full participation by former President Harry S. Truman and Sen. Estes Kefauver, Stevenson's vice presidential running mate.

Campaigning will be concentrated in states where Democratic prospects for victory appear brightest.

The conferees, at a dinner Sunday night in Stevenson's home, rejected any idea of the campaigner making President Eisenhower's health an issue.

"The average American rebels at the thought of a man's illness becoming a focal point in a campaign," reporters were told by James A. Finnegan, Philadelphia, Stevenson's campaign manager.

"You don't thrust a man's illness in his face. The health question is one for the American people to consider for themselves."

Big Republican Pageant Opens In Cow Palace

His Vice President Drive Leaves Stassen 'Loneliest Man'

COW PALACE, SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Republicans, untroubled by any major problems, plunged confidently today into a pageant-convention pitched to blunt Democratic attacks and win votes for reelection of an Eisenhower-Nixon ticket.

Any earlier doubts in the minds of delegates that Richard M. Nixon would again be the running mate for President Eisenhower had been pretty well removed by opening time of the party convention.

Harold E. Stassen had got no where with his weekend plugging here for delegates to join his "dump" Nixon crusade. He was about the loneliest man in town.

And word to associates of Nixon was that Eisenhower would leave the track clear to him by taking no action, publicly or privately, to tab any list of others as equally acceptable to him.

Delegates saw, on coming into this hall, big 10-20-foot pictures of Eisenhower and Nixon at one end.

THE NEAREST thing to a disagreement to crop up in the pre-convention preparations was some argument over a civil rights plank in the platform.

This was wrapped up early today with committee approval of a plank which—as happened with the Democrats—was not all what either side of the argument wanted, but seemed acceptable to both.

The wording was not immediately made public but was reported to say the party "accepts" as law of the land the Supreme Court's pronouncement that racial segregation in public schools is unconstitutional.

Further, it was understood to approve the civil rights proposals submitted to Congress by President Eisenhower.

Sen. Prescott Bush of Connecticut, chairman of the drafting committee, told newsmen he thought the plank was stronger than the Democrats' plank.

BY TONING down an earlier draft described as stronger, the GOP hoped to help Eisenhower repeat his 1952 feat of taking four southern states and also improve their bids to pick up congressional gains in border states.

In the absence of any real struggle over men or issues, the convention atmosphere took on some what that of a society wedding.

The principals were known in advance. So were the ceremonies. Nobody anticipated any surprises. Everybody was confident of a happy future.

Stassen had pinned his drive to replace Nixon on a hope that Eisenhower would let it be known before the convention's balloting session Wednesday that some others would be equally suitable as a vice presidential nominee.

No Settlement Yet of Suez Dispute, but Threat Fading

LONDON (AP)—The 2-nation Suez conference reached a showdown stage today with Egypt and the West still miles apart. But some delegates said the danger of a shooting war is fading.

India's V. K. Krishna Menon drew up a climactic compromise bid with the hope of bringing the West and Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser together.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles met with Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov, presumably to fill him in on the West's firm stand for Dulles' proposal of an international authority to operate the canal.

This Egypt has already rejected.

There were indications the document which would emerge from the conference would contain a variety of viewpoints but with a majority of the delegates supporting the Dulles plan.

WHATEVER THE immediate outcome of the conference, one high Western official said he is convinced military action in the Mediterranean is now remote. He said Prime Minister Anthony Eden is now thinking in terms of moral rather than military persuasion.

Menon, it was reported, has been unable to sell his compromise plan completely to either side.

Menon's compromise plan calls for a two-tier system of managing the canal. At the top would be an Egyptian directorate and underneath an international body, including foreign users of the canal.

While the Egyptian directorate would have the final word of operation of the canal, it would be bound to seek advice of the international group on such questions as development and financing.

Fifteen countries were reported lined up behind the plan Dulles was to introduce.

The new rejection of Dulles' proposal was made by Ali Sabry, President Nasser's top political aide who is in London observing the 2-nation conference from the sidelines. Egypt declined to attend the conference.

IN AN INTERVIEW published in the controlled Cairo press, Sabry repeated the Egyptian stand that international operation of the Suez is unacceptable.

He called the Dulles plan a (Please Turn to Page Ten)

States Righters Thump Drums But There's Much Disinterest

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The Louisiana States Rights party has endorsed former Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews as its presidential nominee.

State Chairman Robert G. Chandler of Shreveport said, however, the selection of a nominee is subject to the will of a national States Rights convention, which the Louisiana group has scheduled in three weeks.

Chandler said his group is negotiating with several other southern states to call a presidential nominating convention. He did not name the states or predict when a convention would be held.

The Louisiana States Rights Sunday issued a declaration of rights, advocating states rights, segregation, interposition, the southern manifesto and state ownership of tidelands—as had been expected.

In Mississippi, meanwhile, a "statewide mass meeting" of States Righters was called for Tuesday to identify a slate of presidential electors and to circulate petitions to get the slate on the November ballot. One thousand signatures are needed.

The plan is to put on the ballot a slate of electors pledged, not to the Democratic or Republican slate, but to a slate sworn to uphold segregation and states rights.

The Mississippi meeting was called by a faction already estranged from Gov. J. P. Coleman and other Democratic party leaders in the state who have shown no particular interest in a party bolt.

A principal cause for the disinterest in booming of a states rights movement is that it could endanger the South's strength in Congress. Southern lawmakers have gained the chairmanships of vital committees through seniority resulting from long tenure under the Democratic banner.

Their fight to hold those seats could be challenged by northern party members if the constituents of the southern congressmen should bolt.

Other factors slowing the splinter movement are traditional Democratic party loyalty and a fear that a third-party move would get no further than in 1948 when States Righters carried only four states.

India Seeking To Buy U. S. Surplus Crops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Agriculture Department officials said today India is negotiating for purchase of about 400 million dollars worth of surplus farm commodities from the United States.

Payment would be in Indian currency, rupees. If the sale goes through, it would be the largest single foreign currency purchase of U. S. farm products.

A department spokesman also said Brazil is negotiating for between 70 and 80 million dollars worth of U. S. wheat.

Gwynn Garnett, head of the department's foreign agricultural service, said the deals have not been completed but acknowledged they have been under consideration.

Wheat, flour, rice and cotton are among the commodities reportedly considered in the negotiations with India.

The sales price to India at current world prices is estimated at around 300 million dollars. This would be some 100 million dollars below the acquisition cost to the U. S. government under its price support program.

The commodities would be delivered over a three-year period.

State Studies Aid For Rain Areas

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche said today Ohio may seek federal aid for farmers in rain-drenched areas in northeastern Ohio.

He said Agriculture Director L. A. Sorensen sent two representatives into the area to check reports of extensive damage.

State officials also are trying to determine whether the new soil bank law might provide assistance to hard-hit farmers.

Ohio Delegates Backing Nixon

Vote Unanimously During Caucus

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Ohio delegation to the Republican convention voted unanimously today to cast its 56 votes for the renomination of Vice President Nixon.

The action was taken at the delegation's first caucus—a closed-door meeting at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, Ohio headquarters.

Ray C. Bliss, chairman of the delegation, told newsmen the motion to back Nixon was offered by Rep. Clarence J. Brown, Ohio's Republican national committeeman.

Mrs. Katherine K. Brown, the state's national committeewoman, seconded the motion. Sen. Bricker urged support for Nixon.

Sen. Bender moved that the nominations be closed and the motion endorsing Nixon was carried unanimously.

BRICKER, IN talking with newsmen after the caucus noted that Nixon has roots in Ohio as his grandparents came from the state and his father was once a streetcar conductor in Ohio.

In answer to questions Bricker said he would be happy to make speech seconding Nixon's nomination but that nothing definite along that line had been arranged.

Bliss said both he and Bricker had been informed Nixon would campaign in Ohio this fall. Bliss also said that he has "reason to believe" President Eisenhower will make a talk in the state.

The delegation's caucus was cut short so that the members could get out of the Cow Palace in time for the opening session of the convention.

Bliss said he had called another conference for Wednesday morning.

"You don't thrust a man's illness in his face. The health question is one for the American people to consider for themselves."

FINNEGAN SAID Stevenson's headquarters will be moved to Washington "as quickly as possible" and his entire campaign against Eisenhower will be directed from there in coordination with the national committee.

"But don't expect Gov. Stevenson to spend much time in Washington," he added. "He'll be out on the stump from the time the campaign starts."

Finnegan said he hoped that Truman's services, like those of Kefauver, "can be utilized to their full capacity all the way down the line."

Truman, who made a bitter fight for Averell Harriman in a block-Stevenson drive that got nowhere at last week's Democratic national convention, has signified his willingness to fight even harder against the Republicans.

Finnegan said he would seek Truman's "advice and counsel."

He foresaw no difference between Stevenson and Kefauver over campaign strategy and said he knew they will "be working in concert."

And he added that he and Chairman Paul Butler of the Democratic National Committee will reach "solid agreement on every aspect of the campaign."

Speaking engagements will be announced as fast as they are finalized.

While the Egyptian directorate would have the final word of operation of the canal, it would be bound to seek advice of the international group on such questions as development and financing.

Fifteen countries were reported lined up behind the plan Dulles was to introduce.

The new rejection of Dulles' proposal was made by Ali Sabry, President Nasser's top political aide who is in London observing the 2-nation conference from the sidelines. Egypt declined to attend the conference.

IN AN INTERVIEW published in the controlled Cairo press, Sabry repeated the Egyptian stand that international operation of the Suez is unacceptable.

He called the Dulles plan a

States Righters Thump Drums But There's Much Disinterest

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The Louisiana States Rights party has endorsed former Internal Revenue Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews as its presidential nominee.

State Chairman Robert G. Chandler of Shreveport said, however, the selection of a nominee is subject to the will of a national States Rights convention, which the Louisiana group has scheduled in three weeks.

Chandler said his group is negotiating with several other southern states to call a presidential nominating convention. He did not name the states or predict when a convention would be held.

The Louisiana States Rights Sunday issued a declaration of rights, advocating states rights, segregation, interposition, the southern manifesto and state ownership of tidelands—as had been expected.

In Mississippi, meanwhile, a "statewide mass meeting" of States Righters was called for Tuesday to identify a slate of presidential electors and to circulate petitions to get the slate on the November ballot. One thousand signatures are needed.

The plan is to put on the ballot a slate of electors pledged, not to the Democratic or Republican state, but to a slate sworn to uphold segregation and states rights.

The Mississippi meeting was called by a faction already estranged from Gov. J. P. Coleman and other Democratic party leaders in the state who have shown no particular interest in a party bolt.

A principal cause for the disinterest in booming of a states rights movement is that it could endanger the South's strength in Congress. Southern lawmakers have gained the chairmanships of vital committees through seniority resulting from long tenure under the Democratic banner.

Their fight to hold those seats could be challenged by northern party members if the constituents of the southern congressmen should bolt.

Other factors slowing the splinter movement are traditional Democratic party loyalty and a fear that a third-party move would get no further than in 1948 when States Righters carried only four states.

India Seeking To Buy U. S. Surplus Crops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Agriculture Department officials said today India is negotiating for purchase of about 400 million dollars worth of surplus farm commodities from the United States.

Payment would be in Indian currency, rupees. If the sale goes through, it would be the largest single foreign currency purchase of U. S. farm products.

A department spokesman also said Brazil is negotiating for between 70 and 80 million dollars worth of U. S. wheat.

Gwynn Garnett, head of the department's foreign agricultural service, said the deals have not been completed but acknowledged they have been under consideration.

Wheat, flour, rice and cotton are among the commodities reportedly considered in the negotiations with India.

The sales price to India at current world prices is estimated at around 300 million dollars. This would be some 100 million dollars below the acquisition cost to the U. S. government under its price support program.

The commodities would be delivered over a three-year period.

State Studies Aid For Rain Areas

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche said today Ohio may seek federal aid for farmers in rain-drenched areas in northeastern Ohio.

He said Agriculture Director L. A. Sorensen sent two representatives into the area to check reports of extensive damage.

State officials also are trying to determine whether the new soil bank law might provide assistance to hard-hit farmers.

O'Neill Special Guest at Dogtown Republican Club's Anniversary Dinner

The Record-Herald
Mon. Aug. 20, 1956 3
Washington, C. H. Ohio

The "Dogtown Republican Club" held its sixth anniversary dinner meeting Saturday night with Cliff E. Hughes as host, the dinner served on the lawn at his farm home, five miles east of Washington C. H. on White Road.

With 50 guests in attendance, including several from outside Fayette County, this was the first time this group has emerged from its customary "off the record" sessions and its charter members have welcomed newspaper publicity.

Its special honored guest on this occasion was Attorney General C. William O'Neill, Republican candidate for governor. Also present were State Sen. Lowell Fess, former State Sen. Albert Daniels, candidate for Congress in this Sixth Ohio district and all the Republican candidates on the county ticket.

SPOKESMEN for membership of the club declare that it is the most unique and informal of any organization, if it can be called an organization, in this county.

It has no officers, constitution, by-laws or definite rules, yet it follows a few definitely established ideas among which are that anything said at any meeting is "off the record".

Its members assert that good fellowship and pleasant social diversion are its primary goals although its meetings are always punctuated with some frank political talks.

Selby Shoe Co. Control Is Sold

PORTSMOUTH (P) — Control of Selby Shoe Co., manufacturer of women's footwear, has been purchased by three Brooklyn and Chicago men, Roger Selby, chairman of the board and son of the founder, said Saturday.

Selby identified the purchasers as Morrie Chaitlen of Brooklyn, president of Rockwood & Co., chocolate manufacturers, and J. A. Pritzker of Chicago and his father, A. N. Pritzker. Selby said they bought 152,000 shares, slightly more than two-thirds of Selby's 226,500 outstanding shares for more than $3 million.

Took Everything But Kitchen Sink

ALBUQUERQUE (A) — Thieves left the kitchen sink in a home owned by Mrs. William O'Sullivan, but not much else.

Police reported someone stole all the inside doors, furniture, hot water, tank, east iron porch railings, a $1,700 heating unit and built-in bathtub.

anyone present having the privilege of "airing his views" with expectation that he may have many questions flung at him while he has the floor.

THIS GROUP has its own "barber shop quartet" which often becomes a double octet before a song is finished. That is the sum total of the program for any meeting except for the highlight which is a dinner from which no one ever departs hungry, the members declare.

The women members of a host's family usually prepare and serve this meal but never take part in the rest of the proceedings. The gathering at the Hughes home Saturday night was no exception, with Mrs. Clifford Hughes in charge of the plentiful food, assisted by her two daughters, Mrs. Martha Bock of Jeffersonville and Miss Peggy Hughes of Columbus.

This club originated about six years ago when a neighborhood group of friends of Cliff Hughes at-

Filmland Pair Injured, Say Photog Pushed

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (B) — Actress Diana Dors and her husband, Dennis Hamilton, were nursing injuries today along with a photographer they say pushed them into their swimming pool during a gay housewarming.

The British couple went into the water at the shallow end of the pool Sunday night along with two male guests. All were fully clothed.

The other two in the dunked quartet were Miss Dors' agent, Louis Schurr, and her dress designer, Howard Shoup.

The photographer, Stuart Sawyer, 32, of the United Press, was slugged in a fight that followed. Hamilton admitted striking Sawyer, who later flatly denied pushing anyone.

Miss Dors complained of a sore back and was put to bed. Her physician said she received "numerous bruises and abrasions."

Hamilton's hand also was hurt and X-rays were to be taken to determine if he broke it.

Sawyer suffered a possible broken nose, facial lacerations and bruises on the face, head and ribs, a physician reported.

Hamilton later said he held no grudge against the photographer.

Sawyer denied pushing the quartet into the water, adding:

"I don't remember anything until I woke up in a car."

ALL OF ITS sessions since have been irregular and occur only at the call of one or more of its members who act as hosts for a "get-together" feast. The club's so-called regular membership is reported

Youth Went For Help; He's Lost

PECOS, N.M. (P) — Search parties today combed the rain-soaked Pecos Hills and streams for an 11-year-old Santa Fe boy who vanished Saturday while seeking aid for a blind companion.

Bobby Martinez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Martinez of Santa Fe, hasn't been heard of since 2 p.m. Saturday when he and a companion, Albert Gonzales, blind Santa Fe attorney, were caught by a rain storm.

They took refuge under a tree, and Bobby volunteered to run back to the ranch where his parents were staying to obtain transportation for Gonzales. He never reached the ranch.

Gonzales was found and taken to the ranch later.

now to have reached approximately the half-hundred mark.

At Saturday evening's soiree, with H. H. (Dutch) Denton designated to act as chairman, Atty. General O'Neill was called upon and made his remarks brief and in keeping with the occasion. Fess and Daniels also spoke with their talks limited to "two minutes" each by "order of the chair". Then several others were given a chance to speak.

Accompanying O'Neill on the trip here were four members of his staff, Ray Kluth, John Kreisel, Charles Burth and Blaine Sickles, the latter being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Trent Sickles of this city.

'Blown From Bed' By Lightning Bolt

CINCINNATI (C) — A lightning bolt plunged through the roof of a home in suburban Greenhills Sunday and burned the bed of Earl Scheve while he slept. But his only injuries were "a couple of tiny burns" on his back.

Scheve's wife said she thought her husband had been killed. "Then I saw him standing up. He must have been blown out of bed, he doesn't know what happened. But I never saw anybody get out of bed so fast."

Connie Haines Has New Baby Boy

HOLLYWOOD (H) — Petite songstress Connie Haines, who normally weighs only about 100 pounds, gave birth to a 9 pound 14½ ounce baby boy Sunday night.

The new arrival will be named after his father, Robert De Haven, a lieutenant colonel in the Air Force reserve employed as an executive and test pilot at Hughes Aircraft.

The baby is the couple's second child.

Bonus Endorsed

COLUMBUS (C) — The Ohio American Legion executive committee Sunday endorsed a state bonus measure for Korean veterans. The measure was placed on the Nov. 6 general election ballot by the last General Assembly.

He Will Probably Be There Now

ALBUQUERQUE (A) — An Albuquerque man Clyde Shye, 20, staggered off the streets into police headquarters Sunday night, insisted he had been in the jail four days and demanded his freedom.

Officers hadn't seen him before, but expect to get to know him better. He was charged with drunkenness.

Next 30 Days To See Dip In Mercury

WASHINGTON (W) — Chiller-than-usual temperatures over the next month have been predicted for the Great Lakes region, the northern plains and the far southwest, but thermometers are expected to rise above normal in the south east of the Rockies and along the New England and California coasts.

The Weather Bureau issued this 30-day forecast for the country:

"The 30-day outlook for the period from mid-August to mid-September calls for temperatures to average below seasonal normals in the Great Lakes region, northern plains and far southwest.

"Above normal temperatures are expected in the southern half of the nation east of the Rockies, in the northern plateau region and along the coasts of New England and California.

"In other areas, temperatures should average near normal.

"Precipitation is expected to exceed normal in the central plains and Great Lakes region. Subnormal amounts are indicated in the Middle Atlantic states, the south and the far west with near normal elsewhere."

Communist Influence Used Against Nixon

The rather vicious attacks made on Vice-President Nixon, appear largely set in motion by the Red fringe of Communist sympathizers in this country, because of his strong stand in the past against some of them who, in years gone by, have "wheeled" themselves into positions of influence and some, even of authority, in official circles.

That seems to be the reason he has been subjected to such accusations as a "hatchet man" for the present national administration.

When the average citizen after hearing some of these tirades asks what good reason there is for opposition to Nixon those who lambast him apparently find it difficult to come up with a good answer.

In a recent warning the leader of one of our country's patriotic organizations while in no way having reference to the Nixon situation, stated some blunt words which deserve the attention of every American when he said:

"The Communist mind has so defined its world that it shares neither truth nor logic nor morality with the rest of mankind. If, in ruling out certain courses for Soviet policy, we attribute to them reasons like our own, we are making a fatal error."

"If we assume that our own policies and statements convey the same meaning to them as to us, we are certain to be mistaken."

"Any policy aimed at an understanding between the Soviet Union and the United States is based on a total lack of knowledge of the ultimate Communist objective."

"The Soviets may be able to 'understand' us in a concrete contempt, but an 'understanding'—even in a hostile sense—as the basis of a sustained reciprocity of policies, is something we cannot expect."

"Peace in the sense of international order based on a minimum of common values and the ensuing restraint of national aspirations is not possible with an adversary who seems to reject the very right of other societies to exist."

The key words are the fact that the Communist mind "shares neither truth nor logic nor morality with the rest of mankind." There is small possibility of reaching an agreement with people who do not recognize agreements. It is this nature of the Soviet Russian leaders and of the Communists that so many well-intentioned citizens of the United States fail to grasp.

'Slogan' Smythe Is Gone

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Death has claimed "Slogan" Smythe. The Republicans will miss him.

Things won't be the same without him at the GOP National Convention in San Francisco this week.

J. Henry Smythe, who became America's first professional sloganizer (he coined 100,000 slogans) has been a leading figure at Republican national conventions for more than half a century.

As some men are fire buffs, Smythe, who never sought or held public office, became a political buff.

At his first Republican convention in 1904 he leaped to the platform during a lull and bellowed through a megaphone:

"Hurrah for Teddy Roosevelt."

The roar of applause that followed set fire to young Smythe's mild soul. He never again achieved the spotlight, but he could no more stay away from a Republican convention than a toper could turn away from a bottle.

Although ostensibly a publisher of children's books and a creator of trade mark names and advertising slogans, his real interests were in political conventions and, as he put it himself, "the promotion of patriotism."

Smythe, who in middle age developed a passion to look like someone else (anyone who was famous), achieve another goal after a friend remarked, "You

look like Benjamin Franklin."

He got a number of governors to declare special days honoring Franklin and was instrumental in getting Franklin's profile on the half dollar.

During World War I he coined more than 1,000 slogans and battle cries, such as "Lend to Defend," and "Keep the Hun on the Run."

He came up with at least 1,000 more slogans in World War II including, "Ack! Ack! Flak! Flak! Back the Attack!," and "Back Our Men—Buy Bonds Again."

Swept by slogan fever (sometimes he threw off 150 in a day during a strong seizure) he put his muse to the unpaid service of organizations plumping for everything from a bigger Flag Day to litter-free America. He even tried to popularize one of the Ten Commandments with "Do Not Covet; Be Above It."

Smythe usually was impartial at a Republican convention, often showing up with as many as 50 slogans for each presidential aspirant.

The acclaim accorded his 1936 masterpiece, "Let's Make it a Landslide," went to Smythe's head. He showed up at the Democratic convention that year proudly wearing an oversized Landon button. The outraged Democrats removed the button and gave him the heave-ho.

A peculiar thing happened to

Smythe in the 1940s. He began to look like Franklin D. Roosevelt. The resemblance was so striking at the 1948 GOP convention that many delegates did a started double-take as Smythe went by. They thought "that man" was still haunting them.

Smythe, far from being annoyed, was flattered to be told he looked like FDR. Perhaps the only public figure in American history he didn't want to look like was Aaron Burr.

A few months ago, thin and enfeebled from a long illness, he came into my office, turned his head sideways and asked:

"Who do I look like now?"

I confessed I wasn't sure, and he said wistfully:

"Many people now tell me I look exactly like Woodrow Wilson."

And, by gosh, he did.

Smythe, a bachelor, died all alone in a local hospital, far from the convention excitement he loved.

Some thought him a busybody and a nuisance, but I liked him for what he was—a kind, gentle publicity loving eccentric who always was on the outside of things he wanted to belong to. Life doomed him to the fringes.

But he remains an odd and charming footnote in American political folklore, and deserves at least a soft "hallelujah" in Heaven, where he is probably coining slogans like, "Make the Day Go; Shine Your Halo!"

A Look at Campaign Oratory

By George Sokolsky

While the master minds at any convention are busy making their deals, the delegates usually are mused by a torrent of oratory. The orators are selected either because they are currently important or because they are prospectively significant. The greatest of such orators for all time was William Jennings Bryan who carved out a career for himself by his gift for speech.

Bryan had no microphone to help him and was fortunate in the possession of a glorious, soul-touching voice, the lower register of which was as moving as Edouard de Reszke's of those years. The microphone seems to have ruined oratorical voices because the speakers no longer possess great lung power but have learned rather to contort themselves within the narrow radius of the microphone, which, if it should unfortunately go dead for a moment, leaves upon the ear the heart-tugging sounds of a pipsqueak.

William Jennings Bryan not only possessed a voice but he knew his native tongue, English, a rare advantage in any days. He was of the tradition of Daniel Webster and Henry Ward Beecher, men who spoke their language with precision and beauty. His "Cross of Gold" speech in the 1896 Democratic convention unexpectedly won his nomination for the presidency.

Bryan was a populist and what he said he meant and this is demonstrable by his consistency until he died after serving the Woodrow Wilson administration. His span was long and his profession was oratory.

Bryan naturally came to mind as one listened to the keynote speech by Governor Frank Clement of Tennessee if only as a contrast, Bryan was eloquent; Clement was forensic. The difference is not only in the spirit of man but in the grasp of content. Clement harangued. It was what could be called a fighting speech, but whom was Clement fighting?

Certainly his "Nixon, Dixon and Yates" did not reflect unfavorably upon anyone but raised the ghost of "Martin, Barton and Fish," the Rooseveltian trio that was intended to amuse not to castigate.

Nor did it become a Democratic key-note to refer to President Eisenhower's illness, considering that Franklin D. Roosevelt was a very sick man but four times a candidate and elected and the fourth time obviously on the verge of death. And among the Democrats, Lyndon Johnson is a cardiac case and Stuart Symington has high blood pressure; and among the Republicans, Christian Herter suffers from arthritis. When men pass 50, they get things and it really makes little difference. Harriman came out of an operation to run for the presidency—an operation which a quarter of a century ago frightened the families of those who had to undergo it but today is routine.

So, it would seem that Clement stopped too low to make an unnecessary point which were he not so young, he would not have thought proper. In fact, only he and Nixon seem to be whole, but who knows for how long? The sort of ad hominem oratory that Frank Clement practices is usually belied at the moment as one belly-laughs at seeing a fat man slip on a banana peel. If the Democrats criticize Nixon for his rough-and-tumble speech-making in 1954, Clement has outdone a Nixon.

None of this is really necessary, particularly at a time when the President had to call leading Democrats away from their conventions to lay before them the national peril in the Suez situation. Anyone can poke fun at John Foster Dulles who lays himself open all the time, probably because, doing his job, he does not care.

Nevertheless, a thoughtful man tries to remember Dulles inherited a whole series of problems that have been in the making since World War I and are now coming to a head historically. A thoughtful man would not imperil Dulles' usefulness at a moment when he must negotiate with a greater number of antagonistic of different powers.

Frank Clement may have relished the cheers of his audience, but did he ask what kind of an audience Dulles is facing in London where he is to keep the United States out of war without damaging our entire defensive structure? Clement probably never gave it a thought. He was just delivering a "campaign speech," which no one is supposed to take seriously, not even he who delivers it.

Diet and Health

When, How To Use Packs, Compresses

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

During family illnesses—and you know how often they occur—a homemaker frequently must substitute as a nurse.

For certain minor ailments she usually can act on her own. For more serious disorders, she'll have to follow the advice of the family physician.

Helpful aids in treating many discomforts are simple applications of heat or cold or a medication to a particular portion of the body or to the entire body.

Do You Know?

If your doctor should recommend a hot or cold pack or a poultice for a patient in your home, would you know what to do?

Every homemaker should be acquainted with a few fundamentals such as how to apply moist heat. The purpose of a moist heat application is to ease pain, supply moisture and to promote muscle relaxation, circulation and drainage of a wound.

It can be given either by applying hot compresses to the affected area or by soaking the area in an easily made solution. Generally, your doctor will recommend one of the following solutions:

Three per cent boric acid, or three to six per cent magnesium sulfate, or .09 per cent ionic salt, mixed with water.

The temperature of the solutions when they are applied should be about 120 degrees. You can keep them warm by frequently adding small amounts of hot solution.

As for compresses which may contain any one of several medicinal substances, you can use towels, flannel, gauze or cotton. For certain cases, one may be better than the others.

Warm and Moist

Keep these moist compresses warm by placing a hot water bag on top. Or you can keep them warm and moist, too, by wrapping the entire area in cellophane or oilskin.

When using compresses or solutions on an open wound, remember they must be sterile.

Usually, it's a good idea to interrupt these soaks or applications occasionally to prevent the skin from becoming water-logged.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

R. B. I am 41 and my nose is becoming gradually larger. It is forming lumps and looks somewhat purplish. What can I do for it?

Answer: From your description you are suffering from rhinophyma of the nose, which is due to a disorder of the oil glands of the nose. Usually a plastic surgeon can clear up this disease.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Democratic and Republican platforms—those promises of what they'll do if the voters elect them—are a combination of good intentions and plain political bunk.

The prime example: Their plank on foreign policy. The rarest thing in a political platform is a new idea. You won't find a single one in the two parties' foreign policy planks if you search them from end to end.

With perhaps one main exception—arms for Israel—you will find no real differences between the parties' foreign policies.

From 1933 to 1953, while they ran the show, the Democrats put together a number of basic foreign policies and programs. The Republicans took them over lock, and barrel when they were elected four years ago.

So the differences between Democrats and Republicans are on how the policies and programs, now the property of both parties, are being handled. The Democrats say they could do it better, the Republicans say they're doing fine.

For example: Both Democratic and Republican foreign policy planks pledge the two parties to continue foreign aid, to help underdeveloped countries, to rely on collective security against Communist aggression, to support the U.N., to back Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Chinese on Formosa, to oppose a seat for Red China in U.N., to continue to seek the freedom of Americans held prisoner by the Red Chinese, to work for the unity of Western Europe, to preserve peace in the Middle East, to intensify cooperation with Latin America.

The Republicans refrain—in saying they will try to keep peace in the Middle East—from saying they will give arms to Israel. The Democrats pledge themselves to help arm the Israelis.

The bunk in the two foreign policy planks is dished out in big chunks.

The Democrats, blasting the Republicans' handling of foreign affairs, find nothing good to say about President Eisenhower's performance. And they omit any mention of this fact: That fear of war between the United States and Russia has receded greatly under Eisenhower and since his meeting with the Russians.

But the Republicans, apparently hoping that voters are not too familiar with the details of foreign affairs, shovel out bunk of their own.

They claim "international communism" has shown "hesitation both at home and abroad." That's bunk. The Russians have become economically aggressive since they began talking more peacefully.

They have the administration concerned by their offers of aid to backward countries, by their growing influence in the Middle East. The administration has found no new way to cope with them. It's relying on the tried remedies: Foreign aid and big loans.

The Republicans talk, as if with pride, about the liberation of Austria from occupation rule and the fact she is independent. The Eisenhower administration didn't bring that about.

Austria became free and independent only because the Russians— for whatever their reasons—decided to withdraw their troops. The Democrats had been trying to get the Russians to do that. The Eisenhower administration simply adopted the same policy and finally the Russians withdrew.

Again the Republicans speak as if with pride about the condition of Viet Nam in Indochina which, the Republican plank says, is "now free and independent."

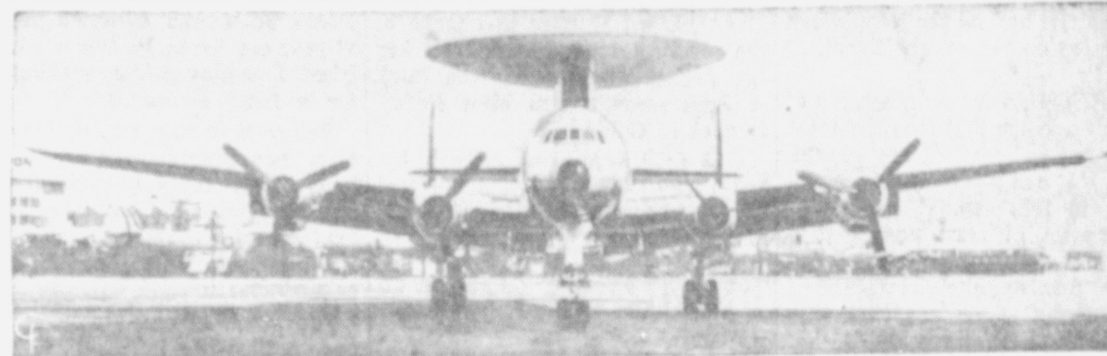

But what the plank carefully omits saying is this: Since the Eisenhower administration took over, the Indochinese Communists forced the French—while the United States looked on helplessly—to split Viet Nam in half. They hold the northern part.

Communist Influence Used Against Nixon

The rather vicious attacks made on Vice President Nixon, appear largely set in motion by the Red fringe of Communist sympathizers in this country, because of his strong stand in the past against some of them who, in years gone by, have "wheedled" themselves into positions of influence and some, even of authority, in official circles.

That seems to be the reason he has been subjected to such accusations as a "hatchet man" for the present national administration.

When the average citizen after hearing some of these tirades asks what good reason there is for opposition to Nixon those who lambast him apparently find it difficult to come up with a good answer.

In a recent warning the leader of one of our country's patriotic organizations while in no way having reference to the Nixon situation, stated some blunt words which deserve the attention of every American when he said:

"The Communist mind has so defined its world that it shares neither truth nor logic nor morality with the rest of mankind. If, in ruling out certain courses for Soviet policy, we attribute to them reasons like our own, we are making a fatal error."

"If we assume that our own policies and statements convey the same meaning to them as to us, we are certain to be mistaken."

"Any policy aimed at an understanding between the Soviet Union and the United States is based on a total lack of knowledge of the ultimate Communist objectives."

"The Soviets may be able to 'understand' us in a concrete contempt, but an 'understanding'—even in a hostile sense—as the basis of a sustained reciprocity of policies, is something we cannot expect."

"Peace in the sense of international order based on a minimum of common values and the ensuing restraint of national aspirations is not possible with an adversary who seems to reject the very right of other societies to exist."

The key words are the fact that the Communist mind "shares neither truth nor logic nor morality with the rest of mankind." There is small possibility of reaching an agreement with people who do not recognize agreements. It is this nature of the Soviet Russian leaders and of the Communists that so many well-intentioned citizens of the United States fail to grasp.

'Slogan' Smythe Is Gone

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Death has claimed "Slogan" Smythe. The Republicans will miss him.

Things won't be the same without him at the GOP National Convention in San Francisco this week.

J. Henry Smythe, who became America's first professional sloganizer (he coined 100,000 slogans) has been a leading figure at Republican national conventions for more than half a century.

As some men are fire buffs, Smythe, who never sought or held public office, became a political buff.

At his first Republican convention in 1904 he leaped to the platform during a lull and bellowed through a megaphone:

"Hurrah for Teddy Roosevelt."

The roar of applause that followed set fire to young Smythe's mild soul. He never again achieved the spotlight, but he could no more stay away from a Republican convention than a toper could turn away from a bottle.

Although ostensibly a publisher of children's books and a creator of trade mark names and advertising slogans, his real interests were in political conventions and, as he put it himself, "the promotion of patriotism."

Smythe, who in middle age developed a passion to look like someone else (anyone who was famous), achieve another goal after a friend remarked, "You

look like Benjamin Franklin."

He got a number of governors to declare special days honoring Franklin and was instrumental in getting Franklin's profile on the half dollar.

During World War I he coined more than 1,000 slogans and battle cries, such as "Lend to Defend," and "Keep the Hun on the Run."

He came up with at least 1,000 more slogans in World War II including, "Ack! Ack! Flak! Flak! Back the Attack!," and "Back Our Men—Buy Bonds Again."

Swept by slogan fever (sometimes he threw off 150 in a day during a strong seizure) he put his muse to the unpaid service of organizations plumping for everything from a bigger Flag Day to litter-free America. He even tried to popularize one of the Ten Commandments with "Do Not Covet; Be Above It."

Smythe usually was impartial at a Republican convention, often showing up with as many as 50 slogans for each presidential aspirant.

The acclaim accorded his 1936 masterpiece, "Let's Make it a Landslide," went to Smythe's head. He showed up at the Democratic convention that year proudly wearing an oversized Landon button. The outraged Democrats removed the button and gave him the heave-ho.

A peculiar thing happened to

Smythe in the 1940s. He began to look like Franklin D. Roosevelt. The resemblance was so striking at the 1948 GOP convention that many delegates did a startled double-take as Smythe went by. They thought "that man" was still haunting them.

Smythe, far from being annoyed, was flattered to be told he looked like FDR. Perhaps the only public figure in American history he didn't want to look like was Aaron Burr.

A few months ago, thin and feeble from a long illness, he came into my office, turned his head sideways and asked:

"Who do I look like now?"

I confessed I wasn't sure, and he said wistfully:

"Many people now tell me I look exactly like Woodrow Wilson."

And, by gosh, he did.

Smythe, a bachelor, died all alone in a local hospital, far from the convention excitement he loved.

Some thought him a busybody and a nuisance, but I liked him for what he was—a kind, gentle publicity loving eccentric who always was on the outside of things he wanted to belong to. Life doomed him to the fringes.

But he remains an odd and charming footnote in American political folklore, and deserves at least a soft "hallelujah" in Heaven, where he is probably coining slogans like, "Make the Day Go; Shine Your Halo!"

A Look at Campaign Oratory

While the master minds at any convention are busy making their deals, the delegates usually are mused by a torrent of oratory. The orators are selected either because they are currently important or because they are prospectively significant. The greatest of such orators for all time was William Jennings Bryan who carved out a career for himself by his gift for speech.

Bryan had no microphone to help him and was fortunate in the possession of a glorious, soul-touching voice, the lower register of which was as moving as Edouard de Reszke's of those years. The microphone seems to have ruined oratorical voices because the speakers no longer possess great lung power but have learned rather to contort themselves within the narrow radius of the microphone, which, if it should unfortunately go dead for a moment, leaves upon the ear the inarticulate sounds of a pipsqueak.

William Jennings Bryan not only possessed a voice but he knew his native tongue, English, a rare advantage in any days. He was of the tradition of Daniel Webster and Henry Ward Beecher, men who spoke their language with precision and beauty. His "Cross of Gold" speech in the 1896 Democratic convention unexpectedly won his nomination for the presidency.

Bryan was a populist and what he said he meant and this is demonstrable by his consistency until he died after serving the Woodrow Wilson administration. His span was long and his profession was oratory.

Bryan naturally came to mind as one listened to the keynote speech by Governor Frank Clement of Tennessee if only as a contrast. Bryan was eloquent; Clement was forensi. The difference is not only in the spirit of man but in the grasp of content. Clement harangued. It was what could be called a fighting speech, but whom was Clement fighting?

Certainly his "Nixon, Dixon and Yates" did not reflect unfavorably upon anyone but raised the ghost of "Martin, Barton and Fish," the Rooseveltian trio that was intended to amuse not to castigate.

Nor did it become a Democratic key word to refer to President Eisenhower's illness, considering that Franklin D. Roosevelt was a very sick man but four times a candidate and elected and the fourth time obviously on the verge of death. And among the Democrats, Lyndon Johnson is a cardiac case and Stuart Symington has high blood pressure; and among the Republicans, Christian Herter suffers from arthritis. When men pass 50, they get things and it really makes little difference. Harriman came out of an operation to run for the presidency—an operation which a quarter of a century ago frightened the families of those who had to undergo it but today is routine.

So, it would seem that Clement stopped too low to make an unnecessary point which were he not so young, he would not have thought proper. In fact, only he and Nixon seem to be whole, but who knows for how long? The sort of ad hominem oratory that Frank Clement practices is usually belied at the moment as one belly-laughs at seeing a fat man slip on a banana peel. not imperil Dulles' usefulness at a moment when he must negotiate with a greater number of antagonistic of different powers.

Frank Clement may have relished the cheers of his audience, but did he ask what kind of an audience Dulles is facing in London where he is to keep the United States out of war without damaging our entire defensive structure? Clement probably never gave it a thought. He was just delivering a "campaign speech," which no one is supposed to take seriously, not even he who delivers it.

Banks Nearing Their Ceiling For New Loans

Business Borrowing
At New High; Some Fear Further Curbs

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Business borrowing today is bumping the ceiling of the banks' ability to lend. And many businessmen fear that the Washington money managers are ready to make borrowing more expensive rather than easier.

Some clamor for an easing of credit so that industry can lay hands on funds to finance its record expansion program or to carry inventories that are growing more expensive to get. They contend that tight money will discourage the industrial building boom that is a main prop under good times. Tight money is accused of slowing down home building, one of the few weak spots.

But bankers here are speculating on when and how much the Federal Reserve Board may raise the discount rate. They think it fears a runaway boom will be built on surging confidence and inflation of money and credit.

The discount rate is the interest member banks pay when they borrow from the Federal Reserve System to get funds to lend to business.

If the discount rate goes to 3 per cent in all Federal Reserve districts, commercial banks are likely to raise their prime rate to 4 per cent at once. The prime rate is the interest that the top name business firms pay to borrow from the banks. Most business have to pay more than the prime rate.

To discourage borrowing to speed up the business boom, the Federal Reserve already has raised the discount rate five times in the last 17 months.

Other interest charges have started up again. Yields are up on government bonds. New corporate bond issues command higher interest—and in some cases in recent days corporations have withdrawn new issues because investors demanded a higher return than the would-be borrower wanted to pay.

Waving Lotion Used by Girl On Cow's Tail

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The maker of the home-permanent kit probably didn't have Antonia in mind, but some of his product has given the Guernsey cow a wavy tail.

Antonia is getting all dolled up for the Ohio State Fair Aug. 24-31. Her owner, 4-H Clubber Pauline McKittrick of nearby Dublin, doused the end of Antonia's tail with waving lotion and wrapped it in curlers.

Don't laugh! Last year, 16-year-old Pauline was junior fair champion in the Guernsey showmanship class against all 4-H and FFA competitors. The year before she showed the reserve grand champion in the Brown Swiss breed. She also has appeared in the ring at the Waterloo Dairy Show in Iowa and at the International Dairy Show in Chicago.

And Pauline, whose hair is naturally curly, will act as queen of the Ohio State Guernsey Assn. during the fair.

Robbery Victim

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—Six masked men last night stole $800 and a diamond ring from Lloyd Brauninger, Marshall Mining Co. president, at his mansion two miles north of here in Trumbull County, he told police. He said the men forced their way into the house, tied him and a friend, Arthur Brickley, with wire, and rifled a safe.

Fayette First in Corn Yield, Swine Population

Fayette County ranked first in Ohio in average corn yield in 1955 after placing second in 1954, latest figures prepared by the Federal State Crop Reporting Service disclose.

At the same time, Fayette County placed first in hogs and pigs with a total population of 133,400 head as of Jan. 1, 1956, compared with 118,100 head on Jan. 1, 1955. This new hog population figure will greatly increase the county's standing in the 100 leading hog producing counties in the United States. County Agent, W. W. Montgomery is now preparing data on Fayette County agriculture covering a period of 75 years. This work will be ready in a few months and will be a part of the program projection study for the county which will be undertaken by the Extension Service Advisory Committee and the Extension Service. The data, when compiled, will be included in a mimeograph bulletin of 15 or 20 pages and will be available to anyone wanting the information.

THE FOLLOWING figures give the 10 leading counties in corn yields for 1954-1955 according to the rank as of the last year. Livestock population figures give the five high ranking counties in the state on cattle, hogs, and sheep.

First Baptist Calls Rev. Harold Twining

The congregation of the First Baptist Church of Washington C. H. extended a unanimous call Sunday to the Rev. Harold B. Twining of Columbus, to become their pastor. Rev. Twining has accepted the call and he and Mrs. Twining expect to move into the newly decorated parsonage, 922 Leesburg Ave., on Sept. 4.

This will be Mr. Twining's second pastorate at First Baptist Church. His first service here was from 1942 to 46 when he resigned because of a period of poor health. In 1948 he moved to Columbus and became the associate pastor of First Baptist Church there.

For the last six years he has been chaplain at Benjamin Franklin T. B. Hospital under the auspices of the Columbus Area Council of Churches. The chaplaincy, when he first accepted it, was only on a part-time basis and Mr. Twining carried it on in connection with his work at the church. However in 1953 the needs were so apparent it was made a full-time ministry. Mr. Twining developed a well-rounded ministry of church services, Sunday School, Bible studies and bedside counseling which gained the support of the majority of the Columbus churches as well as the full endorsement of the trustees and staff of the hospital.

Last year he served as Sunday interim pastor at the church here for five months, and again this year served in that capacity for three months.

REV. TWINING received his theological training at Crozier Theological Seminary. He was ordained at the First Baptist Church at Oberlin, in 1920, and has spent 36 years in the ministry. He has held successful pastorates in both Pennsylvania and Ohio.

The Twining's two children, James and Mary, both graduated from Washington C. H. High School during their residence here, and both they and their families now reside in Columbus. Their oldest son, Harold, gave his life in the Navy Air Corps during World War II.

Planning which began during Rev. Twining's former pastorate here for a remodeled and greatly enlarged church edifice has gained momentum during the years and definite plans are being developed for the completion of building aims in 1957 under the leadership of this new pastor.

First Baptist Church is affiliated with the Ohio Baptist Convention and the American Baptist Convention.

Socialite Held in Death of Baby

CHICAGO (AP)—David A. Deuble, 27, son of George Deuble, president of Climacene Co. and chairman of a Canton, Ohio, bank, was held by Evanston police today for investigation into the death of his infant son.

The younger Deuble, a 240-pound senior at Illinois Institute of Technology here, is accused of slapping the side of his son's head when the child was 16 days old.

Authorities arrested Deuble shortly after the boy, Karl, died Sunday at the age of five months. John Gutknecht, Cook County state's attorney, ordered a murder charge placed against Deuble pending the outcome of an autopsy to determine if the child's death was caused by a blow.

Dutch elm disease and maple wilt are both caused by internal fungus infections. The infections clog the sap stream and give off toxins poisonous to the tree.

VICTOR RIESEL, labor columnist, blinded on a New York street when acid was thrown in his face, indicates his satisfaction after learning that the FBI had arrested two suspects and a third was found shot to death. At bottom, a sheriff (left) takes the accused ex-convicts from Federal Court in New York after their arraignment. In center, Gondolfo Miranti tries to cover his face and, at right, is Joseph Peter Carino. Both were charged with conspiracy. Poet's Corner

TO "MAC AND BILLY"
This is no poet's song of love,
Nor anything so silly;
But just a little, lilting, rhyme,
In praise of "Mac and Billy".

Now "Mac and Billy" are not boys,
But just two lassies pretty;
I'm sure no sweeter could be found,
For any poet's ditty.

The one is fair and golden haired
As summer skies or fairer;
The other's like the dusk o' dreams,
With beauty rich and rarer.

Youth's unaffected grace is theirs
And every pose is charming;
They make my heart go pitter-pat
In manner most alarming.

I wish that I a genii were,
Or pixie or a fairy;
I'd brush their shadows all away,
And make their whole lives merry.

O, you might travel far and wide,
From here to Piccadilly;
But I am sure you'd find no girls
As sweet as "Mac and Billy".

Banks Nearing Their Ceiling For New Loans

Business Borrowing At New High; Some Fear Further Curbs

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business borrowing today is bumping the ceiling of the banks' ability to lend. And many businessmen fear that the Washington money managers are ready to make borrowing more expensive rather than easier.

Some clamor for an easing of credit so that industry can lay hands on funds to finance its record expansion program or to carry inventories that are growing more expensive to get. They contend that tight money will discourage the industrial building boom that is a main prop under good times. Tight money is accused of slowing down home building, one of the few weak spots.

But bankers here are speculating on when and how much the Federal Reserve Board may raise the discount rate. They think it fears a runaway boom will be built on surging confidence and inflation of money and credit.

The discount rate is the interest member banks pay when they borrow from the Federal Reserve System to get funds to lend to business.

If the discount rate goes to 3 per cent in all Federal Reserve districts, commercial banks are likely to raise their prime rate to 4 per cent at once. The prime rate is the interest that the top name business firms pay to borrow from the banks. Most business have to pay more than the prime rate.

To discourage borrowing to speed up the business boom, the Federal Reserve already has raised the discount rate five times in the last 17 months.

Other interest charges have started up again. Yields are up on government bonds. New corporate bond issues command higher interest—and in some cases in recent days corporations have withdrawn new issues because investors demanded a higher return than the would-be borrower wanted to pay.

Waving Lotion Used by Girl On Cow's Tail

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The maker of the home-permanent kit probably didn't have Antonia in mind, but some of his product has given the Guernsey cow a wavy tail.

Antonia is getting all dolled up for the Ohio State Fair Aug. 24-31. Her owner, 4-H Clubber Pauline McKittrick of nearby Dublin, doused the end of Antonia's tail with waving lotion and wrapped it in curlers.

Don't laugh! Last year, 16-year-old Pauline was junior fair champion in the Guernsey showmanship class against all 4-H and FFA competitors. The year before she showed the reserve grand champion in the Brown Swiss breed. She also has appeared in the ring at the Waterloo Dairy Show in Iowa and at the International Dairy Show in Chicago.

And Pauline, whose hair is naturally curly, will act as queen of the Ohio State Guernsey Assn. during the fair.

Whiteside Family Meets on Sunday

The 32nd annual Whiteside reunion was held Sunday at Union Chapel, Yatesville.

A bountiful picnic dinner was spread on long tables on the lawn at noon.

In the absence of both the president and the vice president, Mr. Richard Whiteside presided at the business session. It was opened with the singing of the hymn "More Love to Thee" with Mrs. Nathaniel Tway at the piano, followed by the Lord's Prayer.

The secretary, Mrs. William Looker, read the minutes of last year's reunion. It was decided to retain the same officers for the coming year. They are president, Mr. Edward Whiteside; vice president, Mr. John Graham; secretary, Mrs. William Looker; and the planning committee, Mr. David Whiteside, Mr. Amer Whiteside, Mr. George Graham, Mr. Alvin Writsel, Mr. Nathaniel Tway and Mr. Elden Whiteside.

Mrs. Nathaniel Tway presented a piano solo "In The Sweet By and By" followed by the singing of the hymn "Bless Be The Tie." The meeting closed with a prayer in memory of those who have passed on, led by Mr. Keith Zimmerman.

After the meeting the group in a body attended the 50th anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. David Whiteside.

Those attending the reunion were from Berkeley, Mich.; Cleveland, C. H.; Columbus, Upper Sandusky, Ada, Leesburg, Harrisburg, Washington C. H. and immediate vicinity.

Whitesides Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. David Whiteside celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a dinner at their residence on Jeffersonville Rd. Sunday from 2 until 6 p. m. with approximately 400 guests attending.

Mrs. Whiteside wore a corsage of yellow roses and the home was decorated with many bouquets of flowers which were gifts of well wishers.

The table was centered with an anniversary cake which was a present from the Whitesides' grandchildren. At the back of the table was a floral arrangement of yellow roses and on either side a three-branch candelabra.

During the afternoon Miss Jane Whiteside and Miss Nancy Grim presided at the punch bowls.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside received many lovely gifts to which they responded graciously.

Those assisting in the hospitalities were the Whitesides' sons, Mr. Robert S. Whiteside of New York and Mr. Wendell Whiteside and Mrs. Whiteside of Washington C. H.

Guests attending were from all over Ohio and many from out of state.

Open House Honors Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cox

More than 100 guests called Sunday afternoon at the 60th anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cox at their home.

The home was decorated with bouquets of summer flowers, and several lovely gifts were placed on the dining room table for the guests to admire.

Receiving the family and friends with Mr. and Mrs. Cox were their daughter, Mrs. Tom Haynie; granddaughter, Mrs. Frank Hook and Mr. Hook; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hahnke.

During the afternoon refreshments of punch and cookies were served.

Guests attending were from Sandusky, Columbus, Mt. Sterling, Somerset, Hillsboro, Leesburg, Springfield, Sabina, New Vienna and Fairborn.

Layette Shower Compliments Mrs. Richard Roby

Mrs. Richard Roby (Paddy Boso) of Columbus was complimented Friday evening with a layette shower given by Miss Dianne Elliott at her home.

A pink and white color scheme was used in the decorations throughout the home.

The hostess conducted clever contests, and prizes were awarded to Miss Sandy Griffith and Miss Madeline Denen, who in turn presented them to the honor guest.

Miss Elliott was assisted in the serving of delicious refreshments by her mother, Mrs. Ambrose Elliott, and the rest of the evening was spent in visiting.

The invited guest list included Mrs. Frank Boso, Mrs. Florence Peters, Mrs. Jon Ervin, Mrs. John Burr, Mrs. Jesse Persinger, Miss Jean Ann Boylan, Miss Sandy Griffith, Miss Madeline Denen, Miss Nancy Kimmey, Miss Becky Waters and Mrs. William Chittin of Washington C. H.; Mrs. James Coan and Mrs. Clyde McCray, Jr., of Fort Wayne, Ind.; and Mrs. Robert Specht of Columbus.

Mrs. Ray Deere Is Complimented

Mr. Ray Deere entertained Saturday evening with a surprise birthday party for his wife, Betty.

A delicious buffet supper was served early in the evening after which Mrs. Deere opened her lovely array of gifts.

The guests enjoyed cards and a visit.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Anschutz, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cockerill, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack White, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barton and Mr. and Mrs. William Kearney.

Girls Attending Church School

Miss Sarah Sue Davidson and Miss Nancy Allen of Jeffersonville are attending the Southern Girls School of Christian Service at Sabina which runs from Aug. 19 through the 25th.

Last year Miss Joan Little and Miss Martha Christopherson attended the same school at Lakeside.

Durable Goods Firms See Huge Backlog of Orders

CLEVELAND (AP)—Unfilled orders in the durable goods industries are climbing at a rate reminiscent of the business build-up in the latter half of 1955, "Steel" magazine said today.

"At mid-year, durable goods producers had a backlog of about 55 1/2 billion dollars—a billion dollars from May," the trade weekly said. "New orders continue to run ahead of production."

The magazine said fabricated structural steel producers have near record backlogs and that machine tool manufacturers and railroad car builders have enough business to carry them well into next year. It added that most signs point to 1957 as a record year in construction if steel supplies don't become too tight.

The steel mills reported solid bookings through the last quarter of this year.

Steel production advanced 34.5 points last week to 87 per cent of rated capacity—2,141,847 net tons. Most prices also advanced as steel production moved upward.

"The steel industry—first to make the move—is rounding out its price job stemming from the new wage contract (with the steelworkers)" the magazine said. "Some of these adjustments, however, are being made by unstruck companies which raised prices above those ultimately announced by U.S. Steel Corp."

"Steel's" price composite on finished steel was pulled down by the adjustments to $137.58 a net ton, a drop of 91 cents compared with the previous week. The composite on steelmaking scrap was pushed up by increases in scrap prices to a record high of $36.67 a gross ton, a gain of $1.84 over that of the previous week. The previous high was $35.33 at the end of last April.

Costs of transporting iron ore will go up if the strike against steamship lines lasts much longer, the metalworking weekly said. A walkout by unions seeking recognition as bargaining agents for ships' crews has tied up ore carriers of some lines operating on the Great Lakes.

Tydings Bows Out; Maryland Dems On Hunt

Tydings, who was out to regain the seat he held 24 years before butler defeated him in a controversial 1950 race, announced last night he was quitting his comeback campaign because of ill health.

Now 66, the tall, spare veteran of clashes with the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) has been suffering from a severe case of shingles.

He was stricken shortly after beating George P. M. Vane, Baltimore paving contractor, by a razor's-edge margin in the May 7 primary.

His successor is expected to be named Wednesday night at a special meeting of the state central committee.

Beides Mahoney, those prominently mentioned as possible replacements included former U. S. Solicitor Gen. Philip B. Perlman, William C. Walsh and Michael J. Birmingham.

Costs of transporting iron ore will go up if the strike against steamship lines lasts much longer, the metalworking weekly said. A walkout by unions seeking recognition as bargaining agents for ships' crews has tied up ore carriers of some lines operating on the Great Lakes.

Tydings Bows Out; Maryland Dems On Hunt

Tydings, who was out to regain the seat he held 24 years before Butler defeated him in a controversial 1950 race, announced last night he was quitting his comeback campaign because of ill health.

Now 66, the tall, spare veteran of clashes with the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) has been suffering from a severe case of shingles.

He was stricken shortly after beating George P. Mahoney, Baltimore paving contractor, by a razor's-edge margin in the May 7 primary.

His successor is expected to be named Wednesday night at a special meeting of the state central committee.

Besides Mahoney, those prominently mentioned as possible replacements included former U. S. Solicitor Gen. Philip B. Perlman, William C. Walsh and Michael J. Birmingham.

Lemon, Spahn Notch Triumphs; Milwaukee Fattens Its Lead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southpaw Warren Spahn, pitching for a pennant, and right-hander Bob Lemon, the ace of a first-rate pitching staff that hasn't been able to fire a second place club, today are within reach of the select 300 victory club in major league ball.

Spahn, coming through in the clutch, pitched Milwaukee back into a two-game lead in the National League race as the Braves defeated Cincinnati 3-1 Sunday. Lemon, who broke in as an infielder, used a five-hitter to get Cleveland started on a doubleheader sweep of the Kansas City Athletics, 5-2 and 2-1, and keep the Indians' meager flag hopes alive in the American League race.

It was the 197th major league victory for each of the 35-year-old veterans.

There are only two active 200-game winners in the business today—and Cleveland has 'em both. Bob Feller, without a victory this season has a 266 total, and Early Wynn, with 14 this year, has 215.

Spahn's 14th victory of the year was the big one of the day, sending the Redlegs back to third place after winning the first two games of the important four-game series at Cincinnati. Brooklyn's Dodgers reclaimed the runner-up spot by seven percentage points with a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia.

Another veteran, Murry Dickson, who'll be 40 Tuesday struck out nine and gave just two hits as the fourth place St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-0 in a doubleheader split. The Cubs took the nightcap 3-1. The New York giants, seeking six home runs, took two from Pittsburgh, 7-6 and 3-2.

Cleveland's sweep moved the tribe to within 8½ games of first place New York as the two clubs got set for a two-game series in Yankee Stadium starting Tuesday night. The Yankees were trimmed 3-2 at Baltimore. The Chicago White Sox moved into third place, splitting with the Detroit Tigers while Washington was taking two from Boston. Chicago won 4-1 after an 11-inning 3-1 defeat; Boston slipped to fourth on 7-5 and 11-10 losses with the nightcap going 11 frames.

Hank Aaron's two-run homer in the eighth beat the Redlegs as Spahn kept eight hits—including Ted Kluszewski's 31st home run—fairly well scattered. Tom Ackers, also giving up Ed Mathews' 21st home run, was the loser in relief of Joe Nuxhall. Danny O'Connell's linedrive struck Nuxhall's left knee and sidelined the southpaw starter in the first inning.

A two-run pinch double by Charlie Neal in the ninth inning broke up a duel between the Dodgers' Don Newcombe, who won his 19th, and the Phils' Curt Simmons, who had won seven in a row. Gil Hodges homered for the loser. Dodger run. It was his 11.

Dickson, driving in two runs with three hits, retired 17 in a row before giving a pinch single to the Cubs' Monte Irvin. Don Kaiser was the loser. Stan Musial hit his 21st homer among the Cards' 14 hits. Southpaw Jim Davis and reliever Turk Lown stopped the Cards in the nightcap except for Rip Repulski's pinch homer. The Cubs got just four hits but rapped loser Vinegar Bend Mizell for two runs in the fourth with Harry Chitt's bases-loaded infield hit getting the deciding marker home.

Daryl Spencer hit two of the Giant homers and Willie Mays socked his 24th. An eighth inning error enabled the winning run to score in the opener. In the afterpiece, Mays brought the clincher home in the sixth—walking, stealing second and scoring on an infield out.

Connie Johnson five-hit the Yankees and struck out seven while blanking Mickey Mantle. The right-hander also singled home the winning run in a three-run seventh against loser Johnny Kucks.

Hee Lopez homered for a 2-1 lead against Lemon in the first game, but the Indians scored three in the fourth on five singles to beat rookie Wally Burnette. Both Tribe runs were unearned in the nightcap to beat Art Ditmar. Mike Garcia won it with relief help for a 9-11 record.

Singles by Charley Maxwell and Al Kaline beat the White Sox in the opener as Frank Lary won his 13th. But Chicago bounced back to hand Billy Hoeltz his 11th defeat when the lefty wild-pitched

C. R. Vanzant had his season's best—it was a 39.

Birdie Charles Buxton got the first birdie she's ever got on the no. 4 hole.

Charles Cummings shot a 72 at Columbus, Ind.

John Petty had his best of the season—twice a 39.

Baldwin Rice broke his own past record by doing 18 in 82.

Mrs. Carl Mason spent her birthday golfing at the club.

New golfing members are Robert W. Case, Wilbur Clauser and Mrs. Howard Mace.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hayes had a day of golfing at Port Huron on Lake Erie.

Clarence Maddox made the best shot of the week—he sank a 75 yard approach shot on the no. 6 hole for a birdie.

Mrs. L. M. Hayes hit a shot out of the rough and two balls went sailing into the air.

Bill Himmelspach scored a cool 33 while golfing with Wayne Shobe for his best of the season.

Dewey Sholder knocked down a 43 for his best so far this summer.

Mrs. Helen Dunton is sporting a new pair of golf shoes.

Next Best Ball Tourney will be Sept. 2 at 1 p. m.

Self Top Man At Speedway

Big 50-Lap Feature Scheduled Saturday

Norman Self, Washington C. H., was top man at the Speedway Saturday night, finishing ahead of Ed Parks, Johnnie McIntire, Floyd Duncan, Larry Weaver, Dock Holder and Bob Gall in that order.

Holder posted the fastest time—18:35—and the trophy race was won by Pete Huddleston, London.

Chills were provided by Holder A. Poole and Fat Boy Vance, although Self went over the bank twice but bounced back. He finished in the No. 2 spot in the consolation race.

There were no injuries.

The big 50-lap feature will be run Saturday night, Aug. 25, and in case of rain will be moved to Sunday, Aug. 26.

HERE ARE Saturday's results: Trophy—Huddleston, C. McCarthy, Springfield; R. Huff, Jeffersonville.

First Elimination—F. Duncan, D. Haines, C. Nole, all Washington C. H.

Second Elimination—L. Weaver, Circleville; Huddleston, McCarthy. Third Elimination—Haines; B. Bozman, Circleville; J. Ackley, WCH.

Concy—Knisley, WCH; Self; McIntire, Dayton; F. Duncan, WCH; A. Poole, Springfield; Gall, WCH.

Feature—Self, Parks, McIntire, Duncan, Weaver, Holder, Gall.

Cowboys Victors Over Kernels, 9-2

The Med-O-Pure Cowboys popped the Korn Kernels, 9-2 in Little League play Saturday night.

Several walks, four errors and only four hits supplied the Cowboys nine runs.

The Korn Kernels tied things up in the top of the fourth after the Cowboys had opened with two runs in the first inning. The Cowboys quickly put the game on ice, however, with six runs in their half of the fourth. Another tally in the fifth by the Med-O-Pure nine ended scoring for the evening.

When the boys hit, they hit hard. Out of seven safeties in the ball game, one was a triple by Sam Evans of the Cowboys and two were doubles by Mike Chakeras and Richard Schlupe of the Korn Kernels.

Needles Comes 5th In Chicago Derby

CHICAGO (U)—Swoon's Son has tossed the race for 3-year-old honors into confusion following his triumph in the American Derby in which favored Needles finished fifth.

Ridden by Eddie Arcaro, the E. Gay Drake entry swept to a three-quarters length victory in the $159,425 race Saturday and picked off the winner's share of $102,600.

The Warrior finished second and Toby B. was third. Needles, winner of the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes among five major triumphs, failed in his bid for an undisputed claim to 3-year-old honors.

The D. and H. Stables star, ridden by Dave Erb, never made a serious bid. Ironically enough, Erb had his choice of Swoon's Son and Needles but chose Needles.

Ohio Grid Winner Over W. Virginia

WHEELING, W. Va. (U)—A 33-yard dash by Gene Bell and a 24-yard pass by Jim Potts, both of East Liverpool, Ohio, helped Ohio beat West Virginia, 27-0, in the 14th Ohio Valley All-Star football game Saturday night.

Bell's run scored the first touchdown in the second period and Potts' pass to Pat Patchen of Steubenville Catholic was one of two touchdown plays in the third period.

The other was a three-yard plunge by Geno Sessi of St. Clairsville. Sessi was named Ohio's most valuable player in the game.

Potts threw an eight-yard pass to Bert Dorsey of East Liverpool for the final Ohio touchdown in the fourth period.

Jeff's Semi-Pros Whip Hillsboro, 17-4

The Jeffersonville semi-pro team belted its way to a 17-4 victory over the Hillsboro nine in a seven-inning ball game Sunday at Jeffersonville.

Left fielder Horney of Jeffersonville was the heaviest of the sluggers, smashing a single, a double and a home run to drive in seven runs for Jeff.

Dumford and Russell joined him in the two-bagger column, and Anderson and Hildreth clouted triples for Jeff.

Out of nine walks issued by Hillsboro pitchers, seven were scorers.

The game was called in the seventh according to the league rule that if a team is leading by more than 10 runs after seven innings, the game is over.

Pick Riflemen on Olympics Team

CAMP PERRY (U)—The two small bore riflemen on the U. S. Olympic team going to Melbourne, Australia, next month will be Arthur Jackson of Silver Spring, Md. and Army Lt. Verle Wright of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Army Lt. Daniel B. Puckell of Edgewood, Md. is alternate.

This trio Sunday emerged on top of a field of 170 in a three-day elimination shoot at the National Rifle and Pistol Championships at Camp Perry.

Jackson, a member of the last two Olympic rifle teams, scored 3,452 of a possible 3,600. Wright had 3,448 and Puckell 3,441.

Heavy rains caused the postponement of the races at Chicago Saturday night.

Times Square was scheduled to race there but according to his owner, Eddie Kirk, he probably will be entered next Friday night.

Cleveland Browns Lose, 28-17; Defeat Provides 3 Lessons

SAN FRANCISCO (U)—The Cleveland Browns were beaten 28-17 and outgained on the ground and in the air by the San Francisco 49ers in their first National Football League exhibition Sunday.

Spahn's Freak Pitch Upsets Redlegs 3-1

CINCINNATI (U)—A pitch he developed in self defense when it seemed his major league career was coming to an abrupt end has become Warren Spahn's trump card and one which may help him make a 200-game career winner this year.

The identity of the pitch is somewhat clouded. Spahn calls it a "seroogie," the players' term for a screwball. Whatever it is, the Cincinnati redlegs couldn't hit it Sunday as the 35-year-old southpaw cooled off their hot bats in pitching the Milwaukee Braves to a 3-1 triumph.

Spahn permitted the Red eight hits, including Ted Kluszewski's 31st home run.

Spahn, who now has beaten the Redlegs 28 times in 51 decisions and is only three victories shy of 200, got into his worst jam in the ninth. Bob Thurman and Kluszewski, the first two batters to face him, rapped back-to-back singles to send the near-capacity crowd of 25,986 wild. Wally Post, the powerful right-handed-hitting outfielder, who had hit six home runs in the last nine games, was the next hitter.

"Post murders the fast ball," Spahn related later, so I decided this was as good a time as any to try out this new pitch. I threw him four straight sinkers, or screwballs, whichever you prefer. The first two were away from the plate, but he fouled off the next one and hit the fourth to Mathews for a doubleplay.

Spahn ended the game by fanning the dangerous Ed Bailey on three pitches, a curve, a fastball and the new "seroogie."

The Browns learned three things in the game:

That foxy Frankie Albert, new coach of the 49ers, may be just as much future trouble for Cleveland's pro football champions in the role of coach as he was past trouble in the role of player.

That Vito (Babe) Parilli, the Browns' hope for replacing quarterback Otto Graham still needs considerable polish but is improving. He had only eight completions in 23 throws for 132 yards gained and hit for one touchdown.

He made a last-quarter, 25-yard throw to Ray Renfro, as the Browns moved half the length of the field in 10 plays to score.

That rookie halfback Preston Carpenter, in the words of Coach Paul Brown, "can become an outstanding running back." The Arkansas speedster returned a punt 82 yards for a fourth-quarter touchdown and gained 37 yards in four runs from scrimmage.

Aside from those two touchdowns, the only Browns' points were five minutes after the game started, and Groza's two conversions.

Making his coaching debut, Albert, who used to drive opposing linemen dizzy with his hidden ball tricks pulled the oft-injured Hugh McElhenry off the bench Sunday and the Forty-Niners swept to the 28-17 victory.

Saturday night the Chicago Bears, sparked by the play of rookie halfback Perry Jeter, defeated the Chicago Cardinals 31-7 and the Green Bay Packers came from behind to overcome the Philadelphia Eagles, 27-6.

Jeter, fresh from California Poly, scored one touchdown and ran wild as the Bears beat their crosstown rivals who kept them from winning the division title last year.

In a shrine charity game, the Packers aided by the arm of Tobin Rote rode to victory over the Eagles. Rote also scored on a 2-yard plunge.

Larry Klaus of San Antonio, Tex., is the new head trainer for the University of Wyoming teams.

Hollywood Park's spring thoroughbred racing meet of 35 days drew a daily average of 30,567.

Pennington Smothers Main Restaurant, 21-0

The Pennington Insurance Little League team beat the Main Restaurant nine, 21-0, Sunday night at Wilson Field, behind the one-hit pitching of Billie Haines.

The Pennington nine needed only seven hits to score their 21 runs. The Main Restaurant boys yielded the rest with walks and poor defensive play.

Every player on the Pennington team scored at least once during the three-inning tilt.

Only 10 batters faced Haines as his team kept him up with spotless defensive play. The only Main Restaurant player to reach first was first baseman Wendell Barr.

Flaherty, Winner At Indianapolis, Injured Seriously

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (U)—Pat Flaherty, winner of the 500-mile Indianapolis auto race Memorial Day, remained in serious condition today following his crackup Saturday night. Flaherty, however, definitely is off the critical list, hospital authorities reported.

Flaherty was injured in a 100-mile race at Illinois State Fairgrounds when his auto spun around and was rammed by another racer.

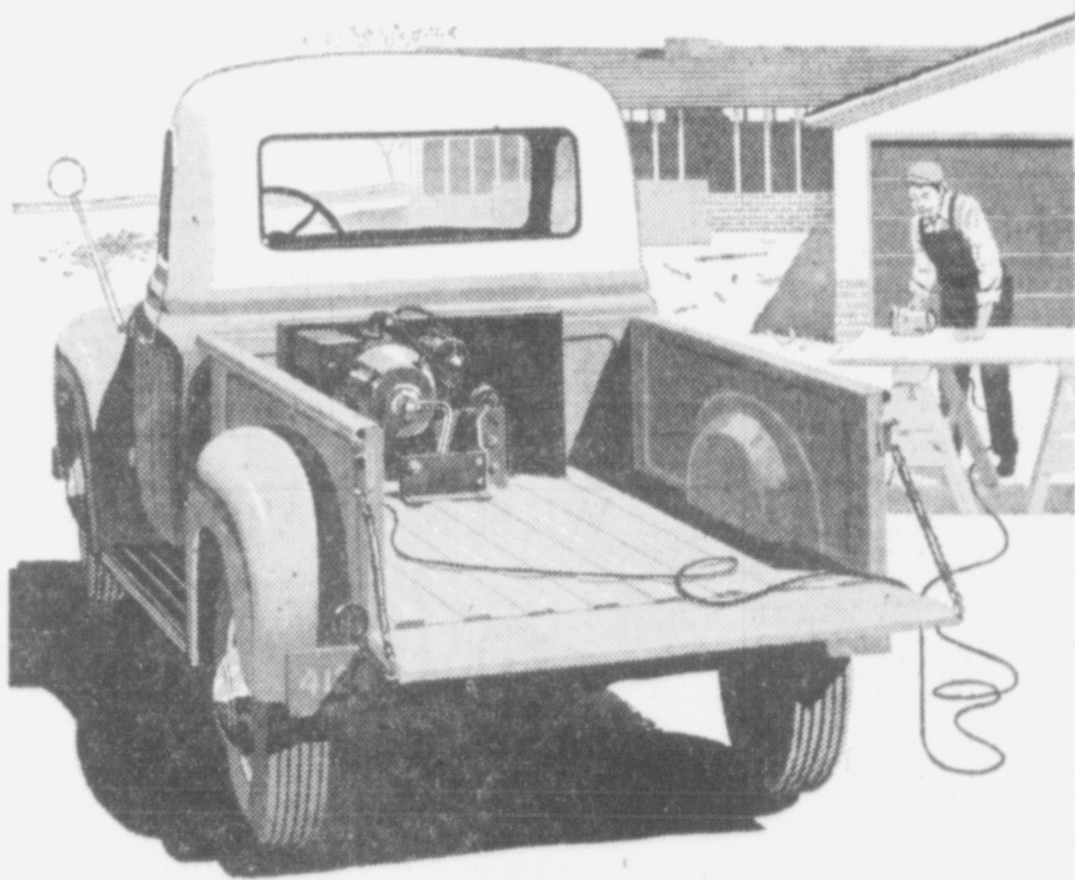

Dr. Fenton Drake described Flaherty's condition as "serious."

Flaherty, 29, at first was given little chance to survive but improved after surgery Saturday night.

He suffered a compound fracture of the right forearm, a fractured left shoulder, compound fracture of the lower jaw, possible skull fracture and multiple face lacerations.

Willie Hartack, who leads the nations jockeys, has purchased a home in Miami Springs, Fla.

Danny O'Connell's line drive struck Nuxhall's left knee and sidelined the southpaw starter in the first inning.

A two-run pinch double by Charlie Neal in the ninth inning broke up a duel between the Dodgers' Don Newcombe, who won his 19th, and the Phils' Curt Simmons, who had won seven in a row. Gil Hodges homered for the first Dodger run. It was his 12th.

Dickson, driving in two runs with three hits, retired 17 in a row before giving a pinch single to the Cubs' Monte Irvin. Don Kaiser was the loser. Stan Musial hit his 21st homer among the Cards' 14 hits. Southpaw Jim Davis and reliever Turk Lown stopped the Cards in the nightcap except for Rip Repulski's pinch homer. The Cubs got just four hits but rapped loser Vinegar Bend Mizell for two runs in the fourth with Harry Chiti's bases-loaded infield hit getting the deciding marker home.

Daryl Spencer hit two of the Giant homers and Willie Mays socked his 24th. An eighth inning error enabled the winning run to score in the opener. In the afterpiece, Mays brought the clincher home in the sixth—walking, stealing second and scoring on an infield out.

Connie Johnson five-hit the Yankees and struck out seven while blanking Mickey Mantle. The right-hander also singled home the winning run in a three-run seventh against loser Johnny Kucks.

Hec Lopez homered for a 2-1 lead against Lemon in the first game, but the Indians scored three in the fourth on five singles to beat rookie Wally Burnette. Both Tribe runs were unearned in the nightcap to beat Art Ditmar. Mike Garcia won it with relief help for a 9-11 record.

Singles by Charley Maxwell and Al Kaline beat the White Sox in the opener as Frank Lary won his 13th. But Chicago bounced back to hand Billy Hoelt his 11th defeat when the lefty wild-pitched

Cincinnati Solon Is Hospitalized

CINCINNATI (AP)—Rep. Gordon Scherer (R-Ohio) was in "favorable" condition at Deaconess Hospital here last night after sustaining a severe abdominal pain earlier in the day. Hospital attendants said he was resting comfortably with sedatives after tests. Police in nearby Elmwood Place took the congressman to the hospital after the pain became so severe that he could not drive.

NEWS VIEWS

BY RAY BRANDENBURG

The last few weeks have been wild and woolly for the natives and visitors in San Francisco and Chicago. With the national conventions setting off their oratorical sky-rockets, political interest is really coming to a boil all over the country (to mix metaphors a little). No matter whom you're for, an election always packs plenty of drama.

In spite of Harold Stassen's surprise move for Gov. Herter to take V. P. Nixon's place, the Republicans have had an easier decision than the Democrats. The Dems came up with more candidates than you can shake a ballot at. With Ringling Bros. and all the other tent shows folding, the political conventions are the last of the circuses left. But instead of a circus band, the background noises you hear will be presidential timber being cut down to kindling size.

We sure had the air conditioner going full blast last week. The amount of hot air coming from the Dem. convention in Chicago was terrific and I'm betting it will be just as hot when the Republicans get going in Frisco. One thing I'm sure of. Things are not half as bad in this country as both sides would have us believe. I guess it does us all good to let off steam.

Wife and I and Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Scott motored up to the Morrow Co. Fair at the Gilead last week. The Scott Knisley Herefords carried off both champion and reserve champion female plus a lot of firsts at the district show. Just proves again Fayette Co. Herefords are hard to beat.

A Midwestern girl went to jail when she made the mistake of wearing stolen jewelry to a Policeman's Ball. As far as she was concerned, it was a foul yall. If you've been thinking of getting a new car any time this year, you won't make a mistake by talking trade with us now... on the car that's a hit wherever it goes, the flashing 1956 Oldsmobile. See us now!

National Guard Unit Returns From Kentucky

92 Officers, Men Arrive in City Sunday Morning

The 92 officers and men of Fayette County's National Guard unit returned to civilian life early Sunday after two weeks of intensive field training at Camp Breckinridge, Ken.

The unit did a "marvelous job" said Warrant Officer Robert Goodson, to make this "one of our most successful" training trips.

At the end of the two-week period the unit received word that two regular army inspectors had rated them 73.30 out of a possible 100, which falls in the excellent category.

The Fayette County unit, Co. M, was the only heavy weapons unit out of three in the 166th Combat Division to receive an Excellent rating. Warrant Officer Goodson said they did not receive Superior ratings, as they have in the past two years, because of a low strength (number of men) rating. The full strength index was changed this year due to a reorganization from above.

The Breckinridge training program sets a grueling pace, said Goodson, and the men were hard-pushed, especially during the four-day bivouac in the second week. The first night of the bivouac found the men "up to their belts in mud," Goodson recalled.

ONE OF the high points of the Breckinridge trip was the award given to Co. M's cooks for "Best Mess" in the 166th Division. None of the men are professional cooks in civilian life. The five-man crew includes Sgt. 1-c Robert Smith, mess steward; Specialist 2-c Henry Litz, first cook; Specialist 2-c Paul W. Ferguson, first cook, and Specialists 3-c Donald E. Crabtree and Ernest Melson, second cooks.

During the first week, before going on bivouac, the men practiced range firing of rocket launchers, mortars, flame throwers, machine guns, and other crew-served weapons. All 27 crews were qualified to operate their weapons. Also qualifying on individual arms (rifles, pistols, carbines) were the 11 recruits of Company M.

Commissioners OK Resurfacing Work

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners added one more step in their improvement of the county road system during the regular meeting Monday at the Court House.

The board authorized County Engineer Charles Wagner to proceed as soon as possible with resurfacing Wildwood Rd. between State Rt. 70 and the Prairie Rd., a distance of 2.632 miles.

The improvement will be a blade mix and seal job with the county highway crew doing the work.

All other matters before the commissioners were routine including approval of bills and discussion, with interested parties, of minor ditch improvements.

Bostwick Rites Held Saturday

Services for Mrs. Emma Bostwick were held at 1 p. m. Saturday at the Parrett Funeral Home. The Rev. Robert J. Slocumb of the Milledgeville Methodist Church read from the Scriptures, offered a prayer, read a monoir, delivered a sermon, "All Things Are Yours", and read two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Hold Thou My Hand".

Palbearers, who cared for the flowers were Jack Thomas, Noel Morris, Jack West, Peter Morris, Gilbert Anderson and Charles Moore. The burial was in Milledgeville-Plymouth Cemetery.

Drawing of Jurors Scheduled Aug. 27

Judge John P. Case has issued notice that grand and petit jurors for the September term of court, will be drawn Aug. 27.

In all 66 names will be drawn, under the order issued by Judge Case, and the first 15 will be grand jurors, the 16th will be an alternate grand juror, and the remaining 50 will be petit jurors.

SETTLEMENT ASKED

Settlement of accounts in the following estates, on Sept. 15, has been asked by the Probate Court: Ralph E. Mack, John W. Mitchell, Ira M. Scott, Ellen Montgomery and Walter A. Shepley.

Weekend Rainfall Gives Corn a Boost

Rains in Fayette County over the weekend apparently were sufficient to insure full maturity of the corn crop as well as the soybean crop and did much toward reviving pasturelands.

A series of electrical storms struck the county, starting with a violent storm at an early hour Sunday, and an unusual amount of lightning occurred, although no serious damage has been reported. Other storms occurred early Monday.

Total rainfall in Washington C. H. over Saturday night and up to 8 a. m. Monday was 72 of an inch. In some parts of the county the precipitation was less, but in others it was considerably more.

Much of the corn in the county had reached a point where it was in urgent need of more moisture to complete maturity of the ears. The mercury dropped from a peak of 74 during Sunday to 57 during the night, and stood at only 58 degrees at 8 a. m. Monday.

Vicious storms whipped through Ohio Saturday and were blamed for five deaths.

The weekend toll of accidental deaths in the state stood at 19, with nine occurring in traffic.

The tabulation of fatalities is made in an Associated Press survey covering the period from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Sunday.

The storm deaths occurred in two separate incidents. A man and his wife died when a tree and power lines fell on their car in Trumbull County. And another and her two children drowned in Sandusky Bay when high winds accompanying a storm overturned their speed boat.

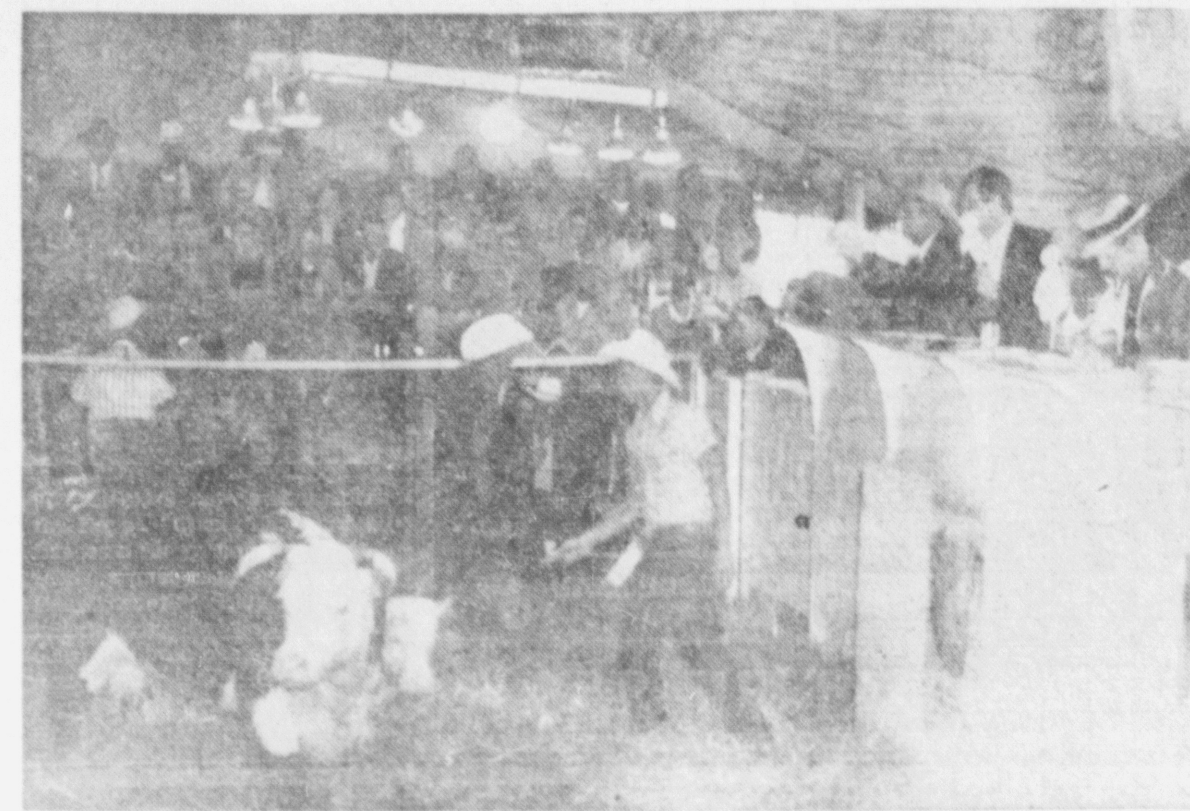

Two women died in a Cleveland apartment house fire. A Middletown man apparently went to sleep along a river bank, rolled into the water and drowned.

A 19-year-old Knox County youth was killed in the crash of an automobile being chased by a highway patrolman for speeding. Two men died when hit by trains—one in Dayton, the other in Cincinnati.

Marting Hereford Sale under Way

COMPLETE DISPERSAL of all Hereford cattle at Bea-Mar Farms on the CCC highway west, began Monday and may continue Tuesday. In the ring are Sam Marting Jr., co-owner, and Ralph Carpenter, herdsman. On the auction platform are, left to right, Emerson Marting, one of the three auctioneers, Jewett Fulkerson, auctioneer on duty and Sam Marting Sr., co-owner. (Record-Herald photo)

A complete dispersal sale of Bea-Mar Farms registered Hereford cattle was underway Monday. Termed the largest sale of its kind in this part of the country, many buyers were on hand from Ohio, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Kentucky and Missouri, in addition to several from Canada.

Owners of the herd being dispersed are Sam B. Marting, Sr. and Sam B. Marting, Jr. Two hundred and forty-nine Herefords, many with calves by their side, were to go under the auctioneers' hammer. It is the plan to sell them all Monday but if more time is needed the sale will resume on Tuesday to complete the sale.

Auctioneers are A. W. Hamilton, Jewett Fulkerson and Emerson Marting.

BEFORE THE SALE got underway, Marting in addressing the large number of potential buyers seated in the large circus-type tent on the Marting farm said: "Lots of people have asked why are we selling out? Here are our reasons: Our right hand man Ralph Carpenter, herdsman, will return to the hospital soon for further surgery on his leg. We will conduct 20 sales between now and Dec. 1 and will be unable to spend the required amount of time on this farm looking after our herd."

Marting's reputation as a sales manager is widely known and each year he spends much time conducting sales for other breeders. We'll be back in the Hereford business again, but we just want time to get our breath", Marting declared. He went on to say with Carpenter in the hospital and himself on the road, Sam Jr. has his hands full with the farm and cannot look after such a large herd.

Forrest Fenn, of the American Hereford Journal, made brief remarks about Marting and the excellent reputation he has in the breeding business and called attention to the fact that in one year alone Marting sold more than three thousand Herefords. He praised the quality of the herd.

Sunday evening the Martings were hosts to more than 160 guests at a buffet supper served on the lawn of their home. The supper was served by the Anderson Drive Inn here and the Anderson-owned Fox Farm of Chillicothe.

Mrs. John C. Schrock, 95, a member of pioneer Fayette County families, died Sunday evening in Greenfield Hospital.

Mrs. Schrock, who was born April 22, 1861, in Fayette County, the daughter of Allen and Sarah Ballard Sollars, had been making her home with a daughter, Mrs. Benton Duckworth, in Greenfield.

Other survivors are two grandsons and six great-grandchildren. Her husband, a son and daughter preceded her in death.

Services will be at 2 p. m. Wednesday in the Murray Funeral Home, Greenfield, where friends may call after 9 a. m. Tuesday. The Rev. Roy Vandergriff will officiate.

Burial will be in Greenfield Cemetery.

Drivers Unhurt In Two Mishaps

Fence Torn Down; Auto Hits House

Sheriff's deputies investigated two traffic accidents over the weekend, in one of which the driver had fallen asleep, and in the other the driver had applied his brakes too quickly on wet road surface.

At 11:55 p. m. Sunday Mary Virginia Monroe, 54, Dayton, was headed toward Washington C. H. on the Chillicothe road, and fell asleep at the wheel near the Rothrock farm.

Her car took the ditch and tore down a part of the fence, damaging the car extensively. She escaped injury. Deputy Don Thompson investigated.

The second mishap occurred at 6 a. m. Monday on Lewis Rd. at the B&O Railroad crossing when Autie Gibbs, 49, of Blair Mill, Ken., jammed on his brakes as he approached the crossing. His car skidded into a parked car owned by Sandy Blake, and then against the Blake house. Both cars were damaged. Deputy Lawrence Mickel investigated the mishap.

Both drivers agreed to pay property damages, and no arrests were made.

The two accidents were the only ones of consequence reported in the county during the weekend.

There are about 23 million bicycles in the United States.

National Guard Unit Returns From Kentucky

92 Officers, Men Arrive in City Sunday Morning

The 92 officers and men of Fayette County's National Guard unit returned to civilian life early Sunday after two weeks of intensive field training at Camp Breckinridge, Ken.

The unit did a "marvelous job" said Warrant Officer Robert Goodson, to make this "one of our most successful" training trips.

At the end of the two-week period the unit received word that two regular army inspectors had rated them 73.30 out of a possible 100, which falls in the excellent category.

The Fayette County unit, Co. M, was the only heavy weapons unit out of three in the 168th Combat Division to receive an Excellent rating. Warrant Officer Goodson said they did not receive Superior ratings, as they have in the past two years, because of a low strength (number of men) rating. The full strength index was changed this year due to a reorganization from above.

The Breckinridge training program sets a grueling pace, said Goodson, and the men were hard-pushed, especially during the four-day bivouac in the second week.

The first night of the bivouac found the men "up to their belts in mud", Goodson recalled.

ONE OF the high points of the Breckinridge trip was the award given to Co. M's cooks for "Best Mess" in the 16th Division. None of the men are professional cooks in civilian life. The five-man crew includes Sgt. 1-c Robert Smith, mess steward; Specialist 2-c Henry Litz, first cook; Specialist 2-c Paul W. Ferguson, first cook, and Specialists 3-c Donald E. Crabtree and Ernest Melson, second cooks.

During the first week, before going on bivouac, the men practiced range firing of rocket launchers, mortars, flame throwers, machine guns, and other crew-served weapons. All 27 crews were qualified to operate their weapons. Also qualifying on individual arms (rifles, pistols, carbines) were the 11 recruits of Company M.

Commissioners OK Resurfacing Work

The Fayette County Board of Commissioners added one more step in their improvement of the county road system during the regular meeting Monday at the Court House.

The board authorized County Engineer Charles Wagner to proceed as soon as possible with resurfacing Wildwood Rd. between State Rt. 70 and the Prairie Rd., a distance of 2.632 miles.

The improvement will be a blade mix and seal job with the county highway crew doing the work.

All other matters before the commissioners were routine including approval of bills and discussion, with interested parties, of minor ditch improvements.

Bostwick Rites Held Saturday

Services for Mrs. Emma Bostwick were held at 1 p. m. Saturday at the Parrett Funeral Home. The Rev. Robert J. Slocumb of the Milledgeville Methodist Church read from the Scriptures, offered a prayer, read a memoir, delivered a sermon, "All Things Are Yours", and read two hymns, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Hold Thou My Hand".

Pallbearers, who cared for the flowers were Jack Thomas, Noel Morris, Jack West, Peter Morris, Gilbert Anderson and Charles Moore. The burial was in Milledgeville-Plymouth Cemetery.

Drawing of Jurors Scheduled Aug. 27

Judge John P. Case has issued notice that grand and petit jurors for the September term of court, will be drawn Aug. 27.

In all 66 names will be drawn, under the order issued by Judge Case, and the first 13 will be grand jurors, the 16th will be an alternate grand juror, and the remaining 50 will be petit jurors.

Chance Seen Federal Reserve Seeking New Inflation Curb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prospects of brisk economic activity this fall, with no letup in borrowing, buying and prices boosts, raised speculation today that the Federal Reserve Board soon may take another step to curb possible inflation.

Such a move would entail another increase in the Federal Reserve discount rate—the interest rate the reserve banks charge on money they lend to member banks for commercial and personal loans.

As usual, there was no comment or indication from the board itself whether another discount rate hike may be in the offing. However, another government source suggested "there are enough elements of inflationary nature on the horizon to point up the possibility, if not the likelihood, of another increase."

Among these elements this source cited the recent wage and price increases in the steel industry and the chance they may form a pattern for other rises.

President Eisenhower and other top administration officials have expressed concern over possible inflationary aspects of the steel-labor wage settlement and its aftermath, a price increase averaging $8.50 per ton.

Another new factor is the start of the multi-billion-dollar highway building program, involving both immediate spending for construction and placement of huge future orders for steel and other construction materials. And employment, already at record levels, will be given another boost.

Advance forecasts of a third-quarter letdown in economic activity did not materialize.

Five times in the last 16 months the Federal Reserve Board has approved hikes in the discount rate to restrain a resurgent demand by business and consumers for credit.

Another increase would tighten further the conditions under which money is available to business and the public for expansion and credit purchasing. Both have been rising sharply since early 1955 when the nation came out of a 1953-54 dip in its economy.

A discount rate hike normally causes higher interest rates on bank loans, thus discouraging borrowing.
